

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973
Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (as amended) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (as amended) prohibits discrimination against any qualified person with a disability regardless of the disability. It is the policy of Central Alabama Community College that no qualified person with a disability shall be subjected to discrimination because of the disability under any program or activity conducted or sponsored by the College. Central Alabama Community College seeks to provide accessible, affordable, quality education; promote economic growth; and enhance the quality of life in its service area and beyond. Moreover, the College strives to foster a welcoming environment to all of its students and works in good faith to meet the needs of our students.

Disclosure of a disability is voluntary. However, if a student with a disability has a need related to his/her condition and would like to request reasonable accommodations; he/she must contact the ADA Coordinator to schedule an appointment to complete a Request for Services Application/Intake form and inform the official of his/her needs. The student must provide reasonable notice of the need for accommodations to the ADA Coordinator. Before most accommodations can be made, the student must present documentation of his/her disability. For disabilities of physical nature, documentation must be dated within the last 12 months. For learning disabilities, documentation must be dated within the last three years. If the disability is of a physical nature, the documentation must come from the appropriate medical doctor. If the student has a learning disability, the evaluation should include test results and a statement of the disability from an appropriate mental health professional, testing agency, or medical physician. It is the